

6 September 2016

Schneider Electric France has successfully completed commissioning of a container SBOX 1250 kVA electric manufactured by Electrotehno and installed in Casablanca military port.

Feed container for as long as two military frigates are anchored in the harbor.

The container was completed and tested in April 2016 and then transported to Morocco, installed and retested the site. View images from the tests here.

Images taken during tests

